The horizontal and vertical dimensions included in the report are computed values, as derived, and do not reflect numerical roundoff. The horizontal dimensions are accurate to within plus or minus 5 feet or plus or minus 5 percent, whichever is greater. The vertical dimensions are accurate to within plus or minus 5 feet or plus or minus 5 percent, whichever is greater. These dimensions represent the best mensural data to date, and are to be considered the most accurate with respect to any conflicting data in previously published reports.
